SCHOLARSHIP AGREEMENT

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING CAREFULLY:

It is the official policy of Glad Tidings Gospel Ministries, Inc. that all students who have received financial assistance from Glad Tidings and who also DO NOT enter full-time Christian work upon graduation or leaving school, are to repay their loan (interest free) at convenient installments over a reasonable period of time. The repayment schedule should be cleared by Glad Tidings upon entering secular work.

Glad Tidings holds a fundraising and informational banquet each year in late Spring, to help inform the public about our ministry, while also seeking to raise additional money for scholarships. With your acceptance of this scholarship, we ask that you make time to attend this banquet in order to share how Glad Tidings' partnership has helped further your education and ministry. Please note that we only expect your attendance if you are within reasonable distance from Chicago (we do not require out-of-state recipients to attend).

I hereby state that all the above information submitted on and with this application is correct to the best of my knowledge. I have read and understood the scholarship agreement of Glad Tidings Gospel Ministries, Inc. (above) and I agree to comply with its requirements.
